Reservations, payment and cancellation policies for charter cruises

- 1 A charter cruise reservation is valid only when Andando Tours returns a written confirmation to the charter client.
- 2 Once the reservation is confirmed, the client has a time limit of 15 days to send a deposit of 10% of the charter net value to Andando Tours to hold and guarantee the reservation. Our reservations system automatically eliminates all reservations that don't have a deposit registered after the time limit specified above.
- 3 Andando Tours requires full payment of the net value of the charter 60 days prior to the cruise start date.
- 4 Our cancellation policies are regulated by the following timeline:
 - Anytime between the day of the reservation and 120 days prior to the cruise start date the client may choose to change the reservation status of the cruise from charter cruise to a FITs (Foreign Individual Travelers) cruise, keeping all confirmed passengers for that departure without incurring in any penalty.
 - Reservations cancelled between 120 and 60 days prior to the cruise start date incurs in a penalty of 10% of the net value of the charter that will be deducted from the deposit made.
 - Reservations cancelled between 59 days and the cruise start date incurs in a penalty of a 100% of the net value of the cruise. However, if Andando Tours is able to sell some or all of the cancelled spaces, the client agency will be reimbursed for the equivalent amount, less the 10% deposit kept back as cancellation fee.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Cancellations of charter cruises during Christmas (24 / 25 of December) and New Year (31 of December / 01 of January) will incur a 10% charge of the net value of the charter regardless of whether the cancellation was made 120 days or more, prior to the cruise start date. For cancellations made with less than 120 days prior to the date of the cruise Andando Tours will apply the same policies as stated above.
